code.TWITTER Rangers doused by Rangers in 5-2 loss Updated 3:54 am, Wednesday, October 10, 2013 STOCKTON - Brad Zaun seemed to be under fire of his own making.

He allowed two runs in the first inning, then one more in the third, the last of which scored the game's first run, as the Rangers dropped a 5-2 decision to the Stockton Ports on Tuesday night at Stockton Arena. The loss was a bounce-back effort for the Rangers, who fell 1-5 on this five-game road trip. They have now gone 0-4. "It was hard for me to let a win go away," Zaun said. "I was trying to win, I was trying to give us a chance, and I lost my focus." Mark Lowe reached on an infield single, took second on Zaun's throw to third and then scored on a Rajai Davis hit to left. Zaun (0-1) bounced back in what was one of the most nerve-wracking games of his young professional career. "I felt good when I took the mound," Zaun said. "The bad thing is, I had two runs against me. It's not going to happen very often, and it wasn't going to happen tonight." Stockton's Shawn Tolbert, whose hit led to the game's first run, scored two runs. "We were really good and we let a lead get away," Zaun said. "We didn't hold that lead, and I think we were a little more un-aggressive than we should have been. We were trying to protect a small lead and give it up." A.J. Griffin allowed two hits, one being e79caf774b
