What's New In?

Gmail Growl works with Gmail in order to alert you to new email. You can tell it to always alert you to all emails, or to only do so when you're at your desk with a screen. Using Gmail Growl Gmail Growl offers you a number of customization options with regard to the new emails that you see in your Google Prowl app alerts. From the Prowl inbox, select 'Growl' from the menu. You will see a screen like this one: From this screen, you can do the following: Set Gmail Growl to poll your email inbox every N seconds Set Gmail Growl to poll your email inbox if you move the iPhone in the vicinity of your email inbox If you select one of the options above, you will see the Growl alert notification appear on your iPhone. Optional Google Maps Prowl integration: If you want Google maps to show your current location and display new locations that you email Growl alerts about, you can do this by downloading the Google Maps Prowl plugin from the App Store. On the Google Maps Prowl app, select 'Settings', then 'Customize' from the menu. In the 'Location Services' section, you will see an option for Google Maps Prowl integration. Turn on this option, enter your 'Gmail Growl' account password and your Growl will work in Google Maps.
